

Another Cake Contest

Friday, March 17th, 1911

Mr. F. E. Kirzman, representing the N. K. Fairbanks Co., has arranged another cake contest to be held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church. Bake a cake and win a prize

Regulations

- Every lady in Albuquerque is invited to take a cake at her own home using any recipe that she may choose except that no other shortening than COTTOLENE can be used. This is to convince you positively of the merits of COTTOLENE, and we rely upon the word of each contestant that this rule will be observed.
- Cakes must be submitted at ROSENWALD'S store not later than 2:00 p. m. Friday, March 17, 1911.
- Cakes will be known by number so that the judges cannot be accused of partiality.
- The judges will be selected by a committee of ladies.
- Cakes will be exhibited at ROSENWALD'S store beginning at 2:00 p. m. Afterwards samples of the prize winning cakes will be served to all. Balance of the cakes will be sold at auction and the proceeds given to the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist Church.

SOCIETY

Rosenwald-Holzheim Nuptials. In the drawing room of the Society hall on Denver Monday evening was gathered a crowd of young men interested to see Miss Anna Rosenwald of Springer, N. M., receive the gifts of Mr. Shirley Rosenwald on this day.

Marked by blossoms, simplicity and beauty the marriage ceremony, officiated by Dr. William S. Edelstein, was most impressive. It was witnessed by many immediate friends of the bridal couple. Attending the ceremony little by little from the bride's home was Miss Betty Rosenwald, sister of the groom. Mr. Carl Holzheim acted as groomsman. A wedding party in the dining room of the hotel followed the ceremony and congratulations after which the bride and groom left for their home in New Orleans, whence they will sail to the Panama Canal before returning to this city. The last of the month when Mr. and Mrs. Rosenwald will take up their permanent residence here.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Holzheim of Springer, N. M., and a social favorite in her home town and in this city, where on several visits her warm qualities and charming personality have won the hearts and esteem of Albuquerqueans, who will extend to Mrs. Shirley Rosenwald a royal welcome.

Mr. Rosenwald is one of the leading business men of New Mexico, a favorite in social circles and a son of one of the most distinguished families of the state. His parents were among the progressive pioneers who helped to make Albuquerque.

Soon after their return Mr. and Mrs. Rosenwald will begin the construction of a handsome residence on the corner of Tijeras and Taos street.

Beautiful Home Wedding.

The matrimonial ceremony uniting Miss Elizabeth Holzheim and Mr.

the groom was held Wednesday evening at the home of the bride where the relatives and a few intimate friends of the young couple assembled to witness the impressive rites. Elegantly simple and the appointments of one of the most beautiful home weddings ever seen in this city. The bride's decorations of glowing yellow lilies and white roses reflected by bunches of glowing姊妹 gave to the interior the atmosphere of a floral bower in which moon-like fairy suns and ghosts, the birds and the company of friends, preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Roy McDonald sang sweetly "Blessings Ever," after which Miss Mata Twy played the professional for the bridal party. Arrived in a rich glow of green diamonds made empires, entrancing a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and enveloped in the bloom of a red carpet by a corner of roses at the valley the bride was enchantingly lovely as she entered the arms of her father, Mr. J. C. Holzheim.

Miss Anna Holzheim acted as maid of honor and wore a sheer white gown over yellow that blended prettily with the color of the decorations. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Raymond Stumm, and beneath an artistic floral design of Jonquils and roses the ring bearer was presented by Rev. H. B. Tolbert, the groom receiving the bride from his father. Congratulations from the most distinguished families of the state. His parents were among the progressive pioneers who helped to make Albuquerque.

Soon after their return Mr. and Mrs. Rosenwald will begin the construction of a handsome residence on the corner of Tijeras and Taos street where they will reside.

Mrs. Holzheim to Entertain.

The members of the Tuesday Evening Club will be the guests of Mrs. Louis Blasing at her home in Parkview Terrace next Tuesday afternoon. The class study on "Germany" will be conducted by Mrs. C. G. Smith. Mrs. Hope will read the paper on "Contemporary History," and Mrs. Tolbert will give a talk on "Greece." A talk will also be given by one of the members on "Modern German Sculpture." The program promises to be one of the most interesting of the year.

Thimble Party. Complimentary to her mother, Mrs. Carrie Miller, Mrs. W. A. McElroy of 462 North Fifth street entertain a number of ladies Wednesday afternoon at a delightful thimble party. Prizing decorations of sweet peas in the uniform color of pink embellished the rooms where needlework and handiwork whilst away the afternoon that ended with the enjoyment of a dainty lunch. These present were Madeline Holzheim, Terrelline Carrera, Barnes, Nutter, Miller, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. McElroy.

Summer Lecture. A highly interesting series was staged yesterday afternoon by the University students when the seminar room was occupied by Professor George L. Shattock, professor of anatomy, in addition to Dr. Hardin. In an impromptu chatted on such subjects as the meaning of existing processes, resulting also from the popularity of the course through the new growth in interests of the day. Next morning the students were invited to the station restaurant and round train and walk along the railroad from Roswell and back again to the station. The students had a good time.

"In-Door, Out-Door Club" Meets. Under the direction of Dr. Holzheim, the young men association of the "Highway Club" met last evening in the rooms of the V. W. C. A. for the interesting discussion on automation induced by the remarks of Mr. Holzheim.

In-Door, Out-Door Club" Meets. Under the direction of Dr. Holzheim, the young men association of the "Highway Club" met last evening in the rooms of the V. W. C. A. for the interesting discussion on automation induced by the remarks of Mr. Holzheim.

Sewing Bee. Mrs. Holzheim was hosting at the Methodist parsonage Thursday afternoon when the girls of the Lead Avenue Sod society gathered to engage in a sewing bee in honor of Mrs. Schell, who is spending a holiday in the city, the guest of Mrs. P. C. Frank.

The harmonious color scheme that marks the decorations of Mrs. Woodson's Monday afternoon function pleased throughout the rooms of this unusual social and gay gathering. Buffet and grecian created the atmosphere of gaiety.

Varsity Entertainment. In the series of University lectures and entertainments given the splendid programs last week preceded by those to be offered by the lecture and entertainment next Monday evening at the Literary building when "The Story of the Stars" will be told by Prof. C. G. Hodges, dean of the University. As a student of science of nature as well as a poet of exceptional ability, Prof. Hodges is invariably witty, instructive and entertain his audience. Besides charge of the musical department, Dr. McQueen that will contribute a notable feature to the evenings program is a talk on "Shylock" and interpretation of this Shakespearean character during his discourse. In addition literary and historic skill are ever a source of inspiration to those who are privileged to hear him, and it is likely the lecture and entertainment Monday night will attract a great deal of interest and even standing room.

St. John's Guild. In accordance with her custom the ladies of St. John's guild met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rummel around the hours necessary to prepare the gaudy bazaar to be held at the home of Mrs. Anna Chaves. These weekly social meetings will take place in the new gathering room of the guild on North Fourth street.

Mrs. Edgar to Entertain. Mrs. E. E. Edgar will be hostess next Tuesday afternoon to the members of the Tuesday card club that assemble semi-monthly to engage informally in the pastime of bridge.
